By law, St Mary’s Anglican Girls’ School is required to keep all data on a student’s attendance/absentee records for a period of seven years from the student’s leaving date. After this seven year period has passed, no student’s attendance/absentee data may be deleted without the written approval of the school Principal.