INSPIRED by famous works of abstract art, kindergarten and pre-primary students at St Mary’s Anglican Girls’ School have created their own masterpieces. The budding artists unveiled their abstract cat paintings to friends and family at their Magnificent Masterpieces exhibition on November 20.

The exhibition was followed by a picnic in the pre-primary gardens.