Date of exam	Tuesday 28 April 2020
Venue	St Mary's Anglican Girls' School
Start/finish time	Please arrive for a brief introduction at 10.15am, prior to a 10.30am exam start. Students should be picked up by a parent/guardian by 2.30pm.
Assembly Point	Lady Wardle Performing Arts Centre - parents are invited to stay for light refreshments after a brief address and students have left for the exam venue.
What to Bring	Students should dress in comfortable, casual clothing and bring with them water and two pens (blue or black) and any required medication. All other exam materials will be provided. A calculator is not allowed. Students are asked to please bring their own packed lunch. We will provide a drink and fruit.
Medical	Please contact Mrs Gaye Giglia at school (ggiglia@stmarys.wa.edu.au or 08 9341 9111) ahead of time if your daughter has any severe medical or dietary requirements we should be made aware of.

For families residing further than 400km from Perth, arrangements can be made to sit the exam at various country centres so families from remote areas need not travel long distances.

Scholarship holders will be expected to pay the non-refundable School Endowment Fee if the student has not already been offered a place in the School. Further details of fees are listed on our website and are subject to change.

We look forward to meeting you on the scholarship exam day. Should you have any queries, please contact Mrs Gaye Giglia on ggiglia@stmarys.wa.edu.au or 08 9341 9111.
