Helen Judge Art Award

The Helen Judge Art Award is open to Old Girls commencing their second or third year of a fine art or performing arts university degree.

The Helen Hyslop (Judge '50, Head Girl) was a passionate artist. In 2009 she generously established an award to support Old Girls studying fine art or performing arts.

Eligibility

The Award is open to Old Girls commencing their second or third year of a fine art or performing arts university degree. Please note that this award is for Old Girls studying fine art, including painting, sculpture, drawing, print media, photography and architecture, or a performing arts degree, including costume, design, props and scenery. This scholarship is not available to those studying a general arts degree. The final decision of acceptance of an application will be made by the judges and family of Helen Hyslop (Judge '50, Head Girl).

Criteria

- Please complete the scholarship application form, ensuring that you have also included the name and telephone number of a referee from your department at the university.
- Please provide a personal statement of no more than 800 words outlining:
  - your commitment to and successes in the field of the fine art so far;
  - contribution to university life (including any leadership roles);
  - community involvement.

- Please provide a copy of your university academic record.

Closing Date

- Applications close on 25 March 2023.

Please address your application to:
The Principal, Mrs Judith Tudball.
